Things to think about

- ☐ Is there a child under 21 who would need a named guardian?
- ☐ Who understands the child's needs and routines well?
- ☐ Have you spoken with the person you have in mind?
- ☐ How would the child's own voice be included as they grow?
- ☐ What support would a guardian need to continue familiar care?

Questions you might want to ask

- How is a guardian named where I live?
- What can a guardian decide, and what can they not decide?
- How does this fit with my will and any trust?
- What changes when the young person reaches adulthood?
